

2009 Center Stage Staff

TINA KAMINSKI – Miss Tina is the owner and director of the award-winning Center Stage Dance Academy, located in Canfield, Ohio. She has studied the art of dance for over 33 years. She began teaching at the age of 16 and opened her own studio in 1996. Her extensive training includes over 17 years at the Donna Crean School of Dance and the All That Jazz With Monica Dance Studio. Tina has also studied from some of the dance greats, such as, Gregory Hines, Gus Giordano, Henry LeTang, Gregg Russell, Mike Minery, Judy Ann Bassing, Stepp Stewart, Frank Hachett and Bob Rizzo. Tina is a graduate of Dance Masters of America Teachers Training School, and is a certified and licensed dance instructor. She has also been a member of Dance Masters of America, Dance Masters of Ohio, and the Cecchetti Ballet Council for over 18 years. Miss Tina is also a Continuing Education Member through Dance Masters by attending various workshops throughout the year. Tina's students have won numerous "Over-All High Point Awards", "Special Judges Awards" and "Choreography Awards" on the local, state and national levels. Several of her students have gone on to perform with Disney, become professional dancers, and have earned dance scholarships to several Colleges and Universities. She is honored and excited to be part of the Kids Artistic Review Judging Panel. Miss Tina enjoys being with her husband James and her son Jimmy. (Watch for Jimmy as the lion in the Wizard Of Oz.) Miss Tina loves teaching and watching young children succeed through dance. The smiles on their faces say it all!!

AUDRA AGLER – Miss Audra has been an instructor at Center Stage for the past 10 years. She started dancing at the age of 9 and continued for 11 years with Performing Arts and All that Jazz with Monica dance studios. Her experience includes studying with some of the greatest dancers in the business, including Gregory Hines, Gus Giordano, Gregg Russell, Stepp Stewart, Bob Rizzo, Geo Hubela, Jon Crutchman and Alan Sheffield. She also continues her dance education by attending numerous conventions and classes throughout the dance year. Miss Audra has choreographed several dance pieces that have been awarded "Top Overall" and "Special Judges Awards" honors at the local, state and national levels. Miss Audra was also awarded a Top Choreography Award, (only one of five given), this year at Starpower Dance Competition and was very excited to receive such an honor!! She is a proud mom of triplets that are 4-years-old!!!! Ty, Nolan and Veda are part of the "Wizard of Oz" group today (Tinman, Scarecrow, and Dorothy). Miss Audra has also starting substituting at the Fairhaven School in Niles, Ohio, and loves her new job. She would like to thank all her students for their hard work and dedication!!! They make my job easy and pleasurable. Thanks also to the parents for all their time and effort into making this year a success, especially to those who helped with props!!!! THANKS TO YOU ALL!!!!

CATIE DONADEE – Miss Catie Donadee is proud to be a part of the CSDA staff. Catie started dancing at the age of 5 and began competing at 11 years old. She has won numerous "Over All" and "Special Judges Awards" on the local, state, and national levels. Catie has taught dance for over 8 years and completed 2 years of Dance Masters of America Teachers Training School. To continue her education she enjoys attending various workshops around the area. By doing so she has studied under some of the greatest including Joe Tremaine, Gregg Russell, and Judy Ann Bassing. She really enjoys working with the children and watching them explore their love for dance. She can't wait to see you all again next year!!! Outside of dance Miss Catie enjoys spending time with her husband Frank and 2 year old daughter Isabella.

TRACY RINEHART – Miss Tracy has been studying the art of dance for more than 26 years. She started dance at a young age and began student teaching as a teen. She learned to be an instructor under the direction of Monica Dascenzo and was certified to teach by Dance Masters of America while teaching for All that Jazz with Monica. Along with years of experience teaching comes a true love of dance. She has choreographed many award winning routines including our grand national champions at KAR nationals this last summer in Myrtle Beach. Tracy has had the honor of teaching the most AMAZING dancers at Center Stage Dance Academy for almost three years. She also has the rare opportunity to share this love of dance with her daughter Hannah. They both look forward to their time they spend at Center Stage with their "other" family. When not teaching Tracy enjoys spending her time with her husband Ted and their three children Hannah, Christian, an Teddy. She is excited to see all the girls perform and wishes them all the best. Tracy is already working on new ideas for the fall and anxious for another year to begin.

JENNIFER CETRONE-SFERRA – For the past 2 years Miss Jen has been the Cheer Prep instructor and the coach for Center Stage Dance Academy Dance Team. She also teaches Jazz, Hip Hop, and Gymnastics. Miss Jen has been involved with the dance world since she was 3 years old. She studied at Donna Crean School of Dance, All That Jazz With Monica, and Avondale Dance Academy dance studios. Miss Jen was also a competitive dancer and tumbler and has won numerous awards on the local, state, and national levels. After High School Miss Jen went on to co-advise the Howland High School Cheerleaders, coached one year of UCA, and was on the University of Akron Dance Team. She has her Associate of Arts Degree in Dance from Akron University. Miss Jen was also a professional dancer for the Florida Flame NBDL League. She's coached for a Pop Warner Cheerleading Squad in North Fort Myers Florida and is currently the choreographer for all of the Howland Little Tigers competition cheerleading squads. Miss Jen enjoys spending time with her husband Dan and their daughter Angeline.

MICHELLE LYDIC – Miss Michelle is excited to be a part of the Center Stage Dance Academy Staff. Michelle has been dancing for over 15 years and loves sharing her passion for dance with her students. Michelle started competing at the age of 10. As a student of Center Stage, she won numerous "Over-All high point awards", "Special Judges Awards", and awards for her costume designs at regional, state and national levels. Miss Michelle is a certified dance instructor with Dance Masters of America in Ballet, Tap and Jazz. She was an instructor with CSDA for 5 years, before going to Bowling Green State University where she earned her Bachelors degree in Apparel Merchandising and Product Development with an Associates Degree in Textile Development and Marketing from the Fashion Institute of Technology in NYC. After college, she went to Richmond Virginia to work with the dance costume company, "Wolff Fording and Company". There, she learned a great deal about her second passion, dance costumes. Miss Michelle loves spending time with her husband Jerrami and their son, Thomas who is growing by the day. With a new home to fix and a new job at Justice, Miss Michelle has her hands full, but is loving every minute of it. "Center Stage has always been a huge part of my life and I am so excited and honored to once again be an instructor. I look forward to giving your children a strong foundation and a great respect for dancing, and to have A LOT of fun in the process!"

BRYANA WILLIAMS – Miss Bryana has over 15 years of dancing experience. She began taking lessons at Donna Creans School of Dance when she was 3 and then came to Center Stage until she graduated. She has since come back and has been teaching and helping at Center Stage for the past 8 years. Miss Bryana has choreographed many numbers for the studio, her high school dance team and other local performers. She looks forward to going to Dance Matsters and other workshops with such talents as Shane Sparks and Gregg Russell to learn all there is about dance. Though dance is her passion, she supports herself by working for Macy's-"America's Department Store". When Miss Bryana is not at the studio or at Macy's, chances are you will find her babysitting one of her many cousins! "It's my love for kids and my extreme passion for dance that gives me the greatest joy. I cannot wait until next year to grow with your children and get them excited about dance!"
